

WORKSHEET

9

Answer the following Questions.

Name the malware or virus for the following:

1. A virus that infects both hard disk sectors along with the executable files.

2. A virus that have the capability of changing itself after infecting a computer.

3. A virus that is almost impossible to detect.

4. A Program that contains hidden malicious functions but look like Something funny or useful such as a game or utility, but harms the system.

5. A program that secretly gather information from the computer it has infected and transmit the information to a different location.

6. A malware that do not depend upon other programs to replicate itself.

7. A program that comes bundled with some commercial software or which when installed, installs packages that download advertising materials and display them.

8. It is a malicious program that takes control of your browser.

9. Junk mails which are useless mails that are send automatically to flood the destination email inbox.

10. Software that is used to remove virus.

11. Name three options that are present in almost every type of Antivirus software.

12. State the difference between Worms and Virus.

Worms	Virus

13. What are Worms? State any two of its categories.

